serasing the moment

philosophy

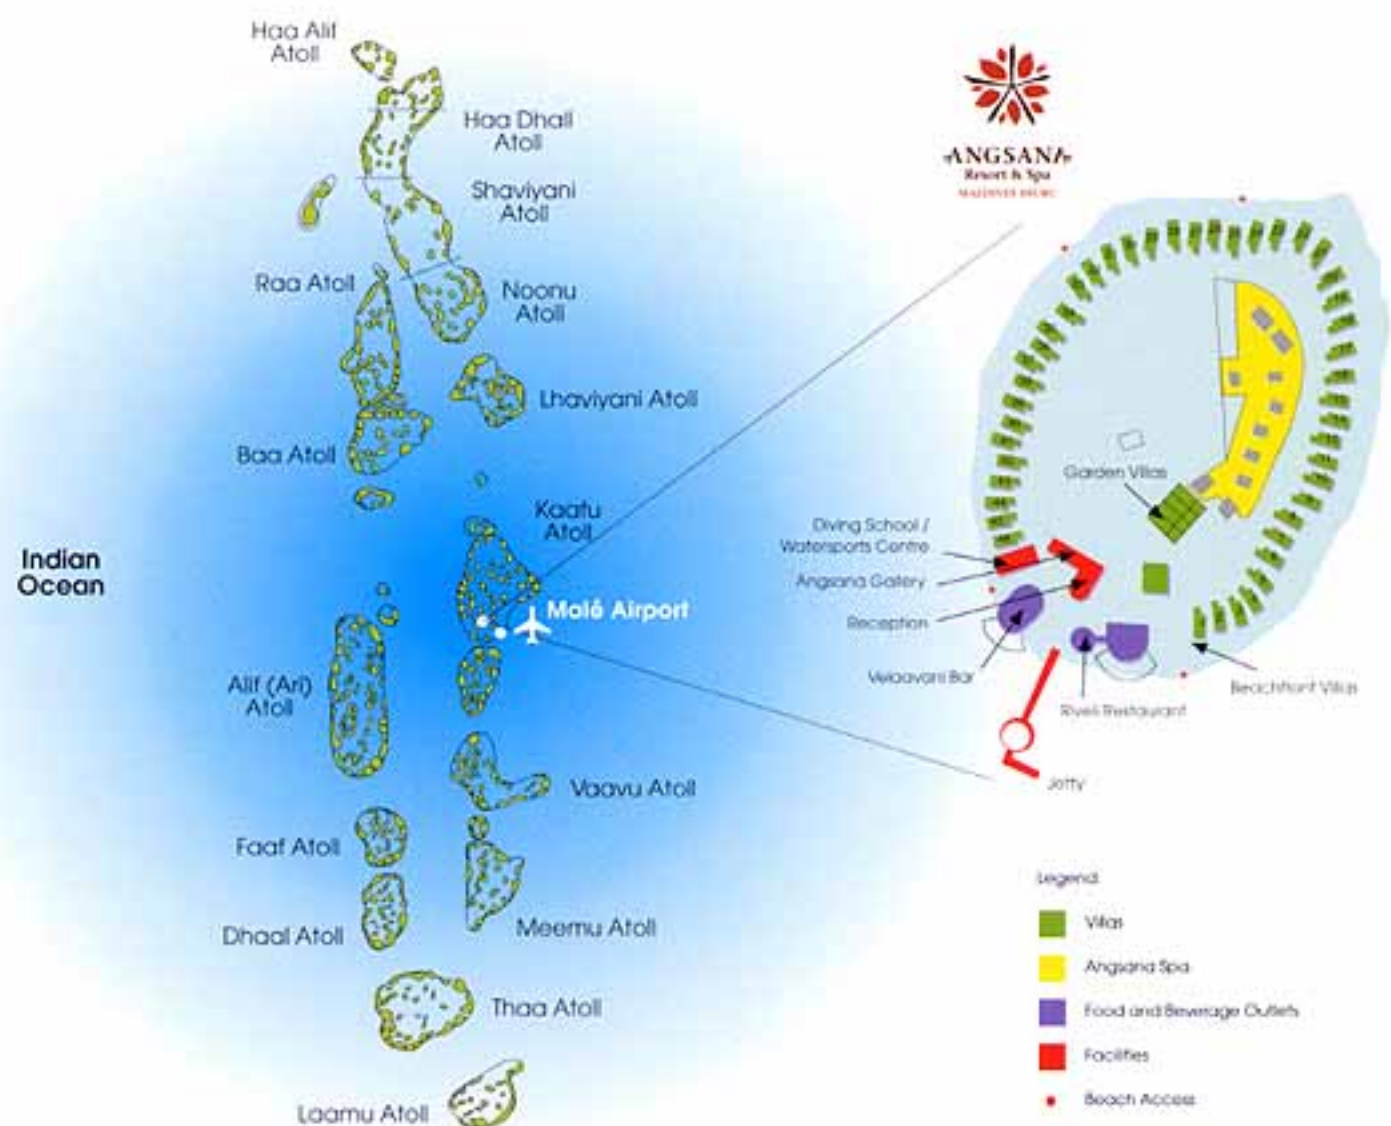

A statuesque tree found in the tropical rainforest of Asia, the Angsana is best noted for its crown of flowers that burst into a fragrant shower of golden-yellow blooms unexpectedly. The glorious Angsana beholds the maxim to live life and savour time as it passes inexorably.

Situated in the most breathtaking settings ranging from seaside pavilions to lush garden terraces, the privacy and tranquillity at the Angsana retreat allow one to shed the cares of the world and rediscover sensory pleasures.

The picturesque getaway island of Ihuru (meaning "old palm trees" in Dhivehi - Maldivian language) is located at the North Malé Atoll, 17 kilometres or a 20-minute speedboat ride from Malé International Airport. The island spans an area of 25,210 square metres of lush greenery covering over 591 metres of the most beautiful palm-fringed beaches with crystalline waters and kaleidoscopic reefs. Having some of the best dive sites and reputed to be the most photographed islands in the Maldives, Angsana Resort & Spa Maldives Ihuru is an excellent setting for a holiday getaway.

Winner of the first Maldivian Environment Preservation Award in 1996 and again in 2002, the island of Ihuru is dedicated to ensure the delicate natural surroundings of the island remain pristine and protected. Angsana Resort & Spa Maldives Ihuru is continuing with these acclaimed projects, such as turtle breeding, reef cleaning, barnacle building and using sand bags to protect erosion of the beaches. Ihuru is also the declared site of NAPWATCH – an international programme set up to closely monitor the Napoleon Wrasse, an endangered reef fish facing extinction.

The resort also offers interesting marine biological classes and its reef conservation programme encourages guests' participation in talks by marine biologists and escorted snorkelling safaris.
